HISTORY OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION

The South Carolina Tax Commission was created in 1915 for the sole purpose of bringing about equalization of assessments of property for taxation. At that time the State, counties and municipalities imposed a tax upon real and personal property. The first power assigned to the Tax Commission was "the Commission shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by law upon the former State Board of Equalization and upon the former State Board of Assessors prior to February 20, 1915." Originally the Commission was composed of a full time Chairman and two members on a per diem basis. The General Assembly indicated its intention to create a body as free as possible from political considerations by arranging for the terms of the members to be staggered so that one would expire each two years.

In 1920 the deflation that followed World War I and the decrease in cotton production due to the advent of the boll weevil caused the General Assembly of South Carolina to give serious consideration to some form of a relief to agriculture from an increased tax burden. A special committee was appointed for the purpose of studying the tax system and the committee was directed to make recommendations as to sources of revenue. The special committee on revenue and taxation made a most comprehensive report and the public interest was so awakened with the results that in 1922 the General Assembly embarked upon a program designed to eventually remove the tax on tangible property from the tax structure of South Carolina and to leave that field of taxation entirely to the counties and cities. That objective was finally reached in 1940 when the last State property tax levy, a three mill constitutional levy, was removed.

The General Assembly of 1922 pursuant to recommendations of the Special Committee enacted an Income Tax law and an Inheritance Tax law and an increase in Corporation License fees and a Gasoline Tax. The General Assembly of 1923 in furtherance of the general program of more equitably distributing the tax burden and ultimate removal of the property levy enacted the Business License law imposing taxes for the privilege of dealing in cigars, cigarettes, smoking tobacco, ammunition and candy. The latter was subsequently repealed. Also a tax was imposed for the privilege of operating places of amusement and a stamp tax was placed on documents. In 1925 the indirect program was further projected by the enactment of a tax for the privilege of dealing in soft drinks and cosmetics. The latter was subsequently repealed. The indirect tax program was now largely complete, but the repeal of the national prohibition amendment in 1933 opened up new sources of revenue and in that year the tax on 3.2% beer was enacted. In 1935 this was broadened to cover 5% beer, wine and alcoholic liquors. Although the State in 1922 embarked upon a program designed to abolish all property taxes and turn over that field completely to the subdivisions of the State, it retained in its administrative organization for the purposes of equalization all the machinery involved in the assessment and equalization of property.

Many changes have occurred since 1922, during which year the Commissioners were put on a full time basis. In 1945 the General Assembly passed an act to enlarge the powers and duties of the South Carolina Tax Commission and to increase the number of Commissioners by two, bringing the total number of Commissioners to five. The increase in the number of Commissioners was due to the transfer of the enforcement of the Beer and Wine and Alcoholic liquors tax laws to the Tax Commission. The 1967 General Assembly passed an act setting up the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission and transferring the enforcement of the Beer and Wine and Alcoholic liquors tax laws to said Commission. The act transferred two Commissioners of the Tax Commission to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission, leaving the Tax Commission with three Commissioners.

REPORT OF THE TAX DIVISION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE TO THE TAX COMMISSION FOR THE PERIOD COMMENCING JULY 1, 1982 AND ENDING JUNE 30, 1983

This report reflects cases that have been resolved by a Court and does not include cases now pending.

SOUTH CAROLINA SUPREME COURT

HERCULES, INCORPORATED v. THE SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION, ET AL. — An action to recover income taxes, the issue being whether the gain from the sale of a manufacturing plant in this State is allocated to this State or whether it is a part of apportionable income. The trial court held that the gain was apportionable. The parties appealed to the Supreme Court. On appeal, the Supreme Court held that such gain was to be apportioned. A petition for rehearing was denied and a refund has been issued to the taxpayer.

MARY K. FRIERSON, EXECUTRIX OF THE ESTATE OF ADOLPHUS E. FRIERSON v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This action involved an estate tax matter in which the estate sought a marital deduction for a life estate with a power of appointment. The Tax Commission took the position that the power of appointment was too limited to qualify for the deduction. The lower court ruled in favor of the estate and the South Carolina Tax Commission appealed to the Supreme Court. The parties have now reached an agreement resulting in the case being ended.

AMERICAN HARDWARE SUPPLY CO., INC. v. VIRGINIA WHITMIRE, ET AL. — This action is under the Administrative Procedures Act to review a finding and order of the Tax Commission wherein it was held that an overpayment of tax did not result from an erroneous, improper or illegal assessment. The matter was argued before the circuit court, which ordered the refund. The Supreme Court affirmed the order of the lower court and the case is ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. CHARLES W. REEVES, ET AL. — This is an action instituted by the Tax Commission to require the partnership to turn over certain records for income tax examination. The matter was argued in the Court of Common Pleas and an order issued that required the production of the records. The South Carolina Supreme Court affirmed the order and the case is ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX BOARD OF REVIEW, GUIGNARD LAND CO., INC., AND MERRY COMPANIES, INC. — The action involved the review of a finding of the South Carolina Tax Board of Review concerning the valuation of certain property of the Merry Companies and Guignard Land Company for property tax purposes. The Board had reversed the Tax Commission's valuation. The Honorable Ralph King Anderson, Jr. set the Board's action aside upon the ground that it had exceeded its jurisdiction and authority. The Supreme Court affirmed and the action is ended.

LANCASTER COUNTY, ET AL. v. COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS

WELBORN BUS LINES, INC. v. ROBERT C. WASSON, ET AL. — This action involved a suit to recover use taxes paid by the plaintiff on its use of leased buses. The lower court ruled in favor of the Tax Commission. No appeal was taken.

CHRISTOPHER H. BISER, M.D. v. ERNEST B. GILBERT, ESQ., ET AL. — This action was brought by the petitioner to prevent the Tax Commission from inspecting his business records. The lower court ruled in favor of the Tax Commission. No appeal was taken.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. RAYMOND E. FLETCHER — This rule to show cause was brought by the Tax Commission to compel the production of records. The lower court ordered such production as the Sales Tax Division but denied the same as to the Criminal Intelligence Division. No appeal was taken.

BOWATER CAROLINA CORPORATION AND CATAWBA TIMBER COMPANY v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — An action was brought by Bowater in which two issues were raised. First, there is an issue as to whether or not certain expenses are deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses. The expenses were paid to a wholly-owned, domestic, international sales corporation created under federal law for the purpose of making sales of Bowater products in other countries. The second issue is whether or not the gain resulting from the sale of property by Bowater to a wholly-owned subsidiary was properly taxed. The responsive pleadings have been filed by the South Carolina Tax Commission and the matter is now pending trial in York County. The issue herein is similar to that in the M. Lowenstein case and because of such, further action was held in abeyance. The case is now settled and ended by reason of the decision in M. Lowenstein.

EDWARD D. RENTZ, D/B/A RENTZ DISTRIBUTING CO. v. SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This is an action to recover certain taxes paid upon bottled soft drinks. The company is not a bottler or manufacturer of soft drinks and purchases the same from out-of-state bottlers. The statute grants manufacturers that do business in the store-door method an exemption and price reduction in the purchase of tax-paid crowns. The Beaufort County Court of Common Pleas, the Honorable William T. Howell, dismissed the Complaint. An appeal was then taken to the Supreme Court and subsequently abandoned. The case is ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. ROBERT G. ROWELL, ET AL. — The Spartanburg County Council had by ordinance directed the assessor to accept late applications for residential lot development classification for property tax purposes. The ordinance was in conflict with general State law and in the action the Spartanburg County Court of Common Pleas, the Honorable John H. Waller, Jr., set the ordinance aside. The proceeding is ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. MICHELIN TIRE CORPORATION — Michelin contested the valuation of its Anderson plant for ad valorem tax purposes. It had further refused access and entry into the facility for the Tax Commisssion to make an on-site inspection and appraisal. An action was then instituted for the entry. The Anderson County Court of Common Pleas, the Honorable Howard Ballenger, ordered the entry. The action is ended.

DONALD F. JONES AND NANCY M. JONES v. ROBERT C. WASSON, ET AL. — This is an action to prevent the Commission from auditing tax years prior to which taxpayers were criminally prosecuted for. The matter has been heard in circuit court and found in favor of defendant. Plaintiffs filed notice of intent to appeal but failed to perfect such. The matter is now ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION v. QUALITY CUSTODIAL SERVICES, INC., ET AL. — Action brought by the Commission to enforce administrative summons. The matter was heard in circuit court and found in favor of the Commission. No appeal was taken, thus the case is ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This action is a suit for refund of penalties imposed upon the executrix for failure to timely file an estate tax return. After pleadings were filed, the parties reached a settlement resulting in the action being ended.

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION — This action was a rule to show cause why the South Carolina Tax Commission should not be required to produce tax return information. The South Carolina Tax Commission alleged it would release the information only in compliance with § 12-7-1680. The Court directed that the information be released in accordance with § 12-7-1680 and no appeal was taken.
